> "Hearing these stories reminded me how deeply educators impact students' lives — and how important it is to continue improving opportunities for children with disabilities."

Proudly Supporting Colorado Families for Nearly 40 years.

Founded in 1986, PEAK Parent Center equips families of children and young adults with disabilities, as well as self-advocates, with the knowledge, resources, and support needed to thrive in school, community, and everyday life. PEAK's work centers on family voice, connection, and opportunities for meaningful participation.
